

Big Nature, Big Reviews!

"This IMAX film captures the dazzling beauty of our National Parks...a rip-roaring, heart-pounding, soulful road trip. "
-- Fox News

National Parks Adventure successfully launched in 40 giant screen theatres this weekend, and the reviews are rolling in. Critics and audiences agree that National Parks Adventure is a stunning and worthy celebration of the Centennial Anniversary of our national parks! The film will open in nearly 100 theatres worldwide throughout the year.

What critics are saying

"National Parks Adventure marks the Park Service's first 100 years with eye-popping footage...Though favorite parks such as Yosemite and Yellowstone are featured in the movie, National Parks Adventure also shines the spotlight on such breathtaking and lesser-known parks."
-Susan King, Los Angeles Times

"Exhilarating...The film should inspire budding conservationists as well as their vacation planning parents, and is sure to delight anyone who appreciates top-flight nature documentaries."
-Sheri Linden, The Hollywood Reporter

THE Hollywood
REPORTER

"A mind-blowing new IMAX film...No better time than a big centennial year to view that storied backdrop in IMAX dimensions."
-Jordan Rane, CNN

"A staggeringly beautiful film...National Parks Adventure sums up just what sets [MacGillivray's] work apart from other large-format movies—superb cinematography, matched by consistently strong writing, editing and soundtracks, as well as a smart, sensitive outlook."

-Daniel Eagan, Film Journal International

"You can see the majesty of Mother Nature in National Parks Adventure"

-George Pennacchio, ABC 7 Eyewitness News

"A thrill ride through national parks...one of the best [new films] extolling their beauty, wonder, spirit and recreational value."

-Don Hopey, The Pittsburgh Post-Gazette

"A soaring, patriotic tribute to the national parks...The cinematography beautifully captures not only the majesty of the parks but also Anker's abilities as a daring mountaineer and athlete. It's awe-inspiring to watch the three friends use the parks as an amazing playground...a sweeping, inspirational reminder of the amazing places our country has to offer us. 4 out of 5 stars"

--Common Sense Media

"National Parks Adventure does very well the thing that top-of-the-line IMAX documentaries do best, which is to blow you away with eye-boggling images of scenery...truly a sight to see."

-Soren Andersen, The Seattle Times

"Gorgeous from start to finish...It's easy to forget you're sitting in a theater seat...The music selection was brilliant."

--Jessi Loerch, The Seattle Herald

"National Parks Adventure celebrates the beauty and thrills of America's parks...But while there's plenty of footage of beautiful places and wildlife, the film is much more than a series of scenic wonders. It also showcases some heart-humping adventures undertaken by the trio featured in the film."

--Beth Harpaz, Associated Press

"National Parks Adventure celebrates the 100-year anniversary of the U.S. National Park Service and captures some of the greatest natural wonders in the U.S....the vistas are lovely."

--Caryn Bailey, Fandango

"A magnificently shot travelogue through 30 of America's National Parks, all of it captured gloriously in HD IMAX..."

--Eric Althoff, The Washington Times

The Washington Times

"A gorgeous IMAX trip to many of the amazing locales in the U.S. National Park System....5 out of 5 stars."

-Lynn Barker, Kidzworld

"It is very cool to see the parks...and get a sense of what it's like to be there in real, and even bigger than real, life. 5 out of 5 stars!"

-Benjamin P, Kids First! Film Critic

And don't miss Robert Redford's interview with author Bill McKibben in Smithsonian Magazine!

"[Redford] hopes the Imax screen will be like the highway overlook of his boyhood: a way to make people want to be in that amazing landscape."

My review can be summed up in three letters: W.O.W.

This film beautifully showcases and celebrates our national parks. If you have been to these places, you will experience a resurfacing of the feelings you had while there; if you've not been to these places, you will feel as if you are there. Not kidding. The footage is that incredible. Find a show in your area and treat yourself! It's so worth it!
